Jaws is an American action-adventure-thriller film series that started with a 1975 film that expanded into three sequels, a theme park ride, and other tie-in merchandise, based on a 1974 novel. The main subject of the saga is a great white shark, and its attacks on people in specific areas of the United States. The Brody family is featured in all of the films as the primary antithesis to the shark.

Jaws was made well before CGI came about, and I couldn't be happier about that. It feels so nice not to be clobbered with it. For me, the movie's two hours just fly by. None of it drags. It jumps in with both feet at the very beginning and doesn't let up until the credits roll. I think Jaws is a masterpiece, and I never get tired of watching it.
